

Final Reminder: Bruno Scholl & MEPs discussing Iranian Women's Rights Protest Tomorrow (8/11) at the European Parliament

(Brussels, Belgium) — PaykanArtCar, a non-profit organisation collaborating with Iranian artists to advocate for human rights issues, in collaboration with the European Parliament, will host a panel event tomorrow November 8, 2022. Journalists are invited to join in person or remotely.

The panel discussion will feature Bruno Scholl, head of the EU's Iran Task Force at the European External Action Service as well as Member of the Belgian Parliament and activist Darya Safai. Additionally, several MEPs will be on the panel including Radosław Sikorski, David Lega, Bart Groothuis and Fabio Massimo Castaldo. Hiva Feizi, human rights activist and co-founder of PaykanArtCar and Iranian activist Omid Iravanipour will also take part in the discussion.

The event will be held in room JAN6Q1 from 13:15-14:45 (CET) at the European Parliament. It can also be attended virtually, using the WEBEX call link below.

There will also be an opportunity to view the award-winning inaugural PaykanArtCar, designed by Iranian LGBTQ+ artist-activist Alireza Shojaian. The car will be on display on the Esplanade Solidarność in front of the European Parliament's building in Brussels from November 7 to 13.

About PaykanArtCar

The PaykanArtCar unites the talents of contemporary Iranian artists with a beloved symbol of Iranian national pride — the Paykan automobile — to advocate for human rights and dignity in Iran. The non-profit, non-partisan PaykanArtCar is privileged to have acquired a historic Paykan Hillman Hunter limousine. Periodically, the PaykanArtCar will choose and commission an exceptional Iranian artist to use the vehicle as the canvas in support of the ongoing struggle in Iran for human rights. The purpose is simple: to use art and a beloved symbol of national pride to promote the rights of all Iranians no matter their race, religion, gender, or sexual orientation.
